

LAMDA

(London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts)

The London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts (LAMDA) is the largest Speech and Drama Board in the United Kingdom. LAMDA is Ofqual recognised, and considered as the 5th best acting school in the world.

Studying the qualifications offered by LAMDA develops reading fluency, enhanced memory skills, improved English language skills and the ability to structure arguments fluently, logically and confidently.

LAMDA qualifications open a variety of careers to students, including, voice acting, background acting, film and television acting, commercial acting, directing and teaching. Through LAMDA, students are able to acquire UCAS points which contribute to their future applications at many international Universities. The table below reflects how many UCAS points the different LAMDA levels accredit to.

How many UCAS points can be gained from LAMDA Exams?

Name of Exam	Results: Pass	Results: Merit	Results: Distinction
LAMDA Performance Graded Examinations – Grade 6	8	10	12
LAMDA Performance Graded Examinations – Grade 7	12	14	16
LAMDA Performance Graded Examinations – Grade 8	24	27	30

Please use this link To Contact LAMDA.